

Join us to hear Kevin Mulcahy at Dubuque's Evening of Light, April 10, 2025 and support continued services for survivors of sexual and domestic violence!

Kevin is a former federal prosecutor and survivor of childhood sexual abuse, whose caseload heavily focused on child exploitation crimes including production of child pornography, sexual trafficking traveler cases, and other significant crimes against children. Hear Kevin discuss how we – individually and through the systems of which we are a part – can do better in preventing harm done to children.

New This Year! While your generous support of the Evening of Light, through a sponsorship, ticket purchase, contribution, or in-kind silent auction donation will ensure services for survivors of sexual and domestic violence will continue in your area, you will also help provide critical training for those in your community who work directly with survivors!

With your support, Kevin will be offering training for law enforcement professionals, sexual assault nurse examiners, sexual and domestic assault advocates, mental health professionals, military victim advocates, child protection center staff, and more on April 11, 2025. This training will be available for professionals across Riverview Center's 16-county service area in Iowa and Illinois.

We hope you will consider becoming a sponsor for these amazing events! With your sponsorship, you will receive:

- Tickets to the Evening of Light
- Brand marketing highlighting your support of our community

See below for more information about how to support to support survivors, Riverview Center, and those who help others right in your own community!

Sincerely,

Heidi Zull

Director of Development & Public Relations
